MINUTES OF MEETING HELD ON 13th October 2016

1. Welcome:

Grace welcomed Mrs Hood, all the school councillors and Mrs Gasper. At the beginning of the meeting each councillor introduced themselves and Mrs Hood explained the roles of the chair, vice chair, secretary and treasurer to them.

They talked about the purpose of having the school council meetings - to make sure pupils are happy, to raise money, share ideas and to talk to their classes about what is suitable to put in or not put in the suggestions and worries box.

2. Apologies:

Everyone present.

3. Agree minutes of last meeting:

No minutes to agree as first meeting with the new members.

4. Matters arising from last meeting:

N/A.

5. Health and Safety:

(1) Eleena reported that the cups used at lunchtime still have black bits in them. Mrs Hood reassured her that the cups go through the dishwasher .

(2) Eleena also mentioned that a pupil kicked a ball over the fence so they didn't have one for the rest of break.

(3) It was mentioned that younger children are running across the coloured playground which is dangerous.

Mrs Hood asked Jake if he could speak to Mrs Stroud to ask if all Prefects can talk to the classes they are in charge of regarding this matter. Nathan suggested putting up a sign.

(4) Eleena said that she had noticed that some children are bringing unhealthy packed lunches to school. Magnus commented that it was upto the parents what the children had in their lunchbox. Mrs Hood said that the school does monitor what is in their lunchboxes.

6. Matters arising from S and W box:

Please can we have bigger benches for the older children?

Mrs Hood said she would look into this.

7. A.O.B:

Mrs Hood spoke to the councillors about our main goal this year which is to finish raising money for the new building.

8. Next Meeting: To be arranged

9. Meeting closed: 11.10 am
