

The Story of the Build

19.5.14

This week the scaffolding has been taken down and the building is coming together.

The outside walls have been plastered and now are painted white. Rubble and soil have been moved and flattened ready for the new courtyard between the buildings.

The scaffolding tower has been used inside the building instead of a ladder.