

The Story of the Build

Week 2 - Beginning 3rd March

The workmen have bashed metal pipes into the ground and they have metal rods sticking out. A mountain of soil is starting to build up! Luckily the weather this week has been better so the ground isn't as soggy.

Can you see the children watching the builders? Lots of us enjoy seeing the new developments taking place!