

The story of the build

This week the electricians were connecting cables that were buried in the ground. There were meetings on site when the window frames were put in the new building in.

The new boundary fence between pre-school and the site has been constructed.

By Grace I and Rohan

