

Young Journalist Competition

- Are you a keen writer?
- Would you like your work to be published for lots of people to read?

If you answered YES to either of these questions then read on...

A Young Journalist page has recently been added to the Potten End Parish Magazine and you have been invited to submit pieces of work to be included. At school we will be running regular writing competitions for children in Years 3 to 5 and a winning piece or pieces of writing will be published in the parish magazine. We will also publish the winning entries along with some other impressive entries on the school website. All entrants will receive a certificate.

The writing needs to be 200-300 words long (although it can be shorter) and can be either handwritten or word processed. Your writing can be about absolutely anything (poetry, an interview, a story, a newspaper report) and you can submit more than one entry. Make sure it is your very best writing and include your name and class (although only first names will be printed in the magazine).

The deadline for this month's entries is Monday 8th June 2015

Please hand your entries to Mrs Stroud
