6. Matters arising from S and W box:

(1) Ellie Yr3- Can we have a knitting club?

Mrs Hood said she will think about setting one up in September.

(2) Callum, Daud-Ali & Nathan Yr6- Can we have some new proper basketballs to use on our basketball day?

Mrs Hood said she will ask Mrs Loria if we can get some.

(3) Kiya Yr3- Can we have a Badminton club?

Mrs Hood said we will look into whether this would be possible.

(4) A request was put in for more display boards in the library?

Mrs Hood said that there are enough already.

(5) Iris & Lily Yr6-Can we have a more cheery atmosphere in the girls toilet e.g walls painted and nicer soap?

James said that Year 6 were doing a sponsored Water Walk and half the money raised from this will go to refurbishing in both set of toilets in the Library. As for nicer soap unfortunately until the soap we currently have stops being wasted then this will not be possible.

7. A.O.B:

Mrs Hood discussed with the councillors about the Dinner ladies proposals for where children play at break times.

Mrs McGill went on a course to talk about playground behaviour, she went with 2 children from Year 5.

Mrs Hood suggested that we take on board this idea of having zones in the playground-

Bottom zone for use of the equipment each class has - no specific class group etc.

Quiet zone - needs to be quiet, no running and for playing games like chess.

Skipping zone - near the 100 square.

Football, Basketball zone - as per usual.

2 children from Year 6 to work in each area to help children, respect of equipment and keep in zone.

Rules for the playground to be displayed in all classrooms and outside.

Dinner ladies to have certificates for good/kind behaviour on the playground.

8. Next Meeting: To be arranged.

9. Meeting closed: 10.53am.
