

Reading Choice Task Grid KS1

Here is a grid of ideas/activities for you to try out when reading at home. Have fun with them ☺

Do some role play based on your book - maybe dress up as your favourite character and act out the part. Think about how the characters may feel	Draw a new front cover for one of your favourite books	Design an outfit you think one of the characters would like to wear	Draw a face to show if you liked the book smile - I loved it, straight face - it was ok and sad face - it wasn't for me. Draw your favourite part of the book	Draw or paint one of the characters in the story write a word (or as many as you can) to describe them
Write a sentence (s) about your book	Create a new hero in a book	Create a new villain for your story	If you could give the story a different title what would it be?	Paint a picture of your favourite setting in a story
Choose a character from your book - if you could give them a gift, what would it be and why?	Write down 3 words you think best describe a story that you have read	Be a word hunter. Look through your book and practice saying and copying/ writing some tricky words.	Ask a grown up to help you write down some questions that you could ask a character in the story.	Change the setting of the book you are reading - where else could you character be? Draw a picture.
