

Music	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By allowing pupils to show their delight and curiosity in creating their own sounds. By considering how music makes one feel and can 'move us' deeply. Explore emotions through music Reflect on different kinds of music Explore creativity in composing Seek to understand how music reflects the beliefs of others.	By exploring how music can convey human emotions such as sadness, joy, anger... By appreciating the self discipline required to learn a musical instrument. Encourage respect for others and for a whole range of music. Explore moral issues through a range of listening, performance or composition	By exploring how an orchestra works together. By discussing what would happen if musicians in a band/group didn't cooperate. By appreciating how music is used in different ways in different settings e.g. for pleasure, for worship, to help people relax. Interact with the community through occasional comments, events or visits	By giving all pupils an opportunity to learn a musical instrument and to take part regularly in singing. By encouraging pupils to listen and respond to traditions from around the world. By appreciating musical expression from different times and places. Respect diversity in music Respect the musical heritage of different cultures - learn to play the music of other cultures.
